

Adhesive Training Bratislava and Meet an Expert - Individual Application Meetings!

John P. Kummer GmbH has been a trading company with American, Israeli and Asian manufacturers of measuring devices, inspection systems and consumables, mainly for the semiconductor industry, electronics, optics as well as for medical technology, aerospace and automotive for 40 years.

At the beginning of 2011, John P. Kummer GmbH was appointed official distributor for EPO-TEK® adhesives by the manufacturer Epoxy Technology Inc. in order to offer technical advice on product and application support as well as the commercial handling.

Adhesives – Application – Assistance

During this one-day training, we give you an insight into the variety of applications and the basics of adhesive technology. We read and understand the information in the technical data sheet and select the right adhesive for the planned application.

Agenda Adhesive Training:

- Adhesive in general
- Adhesive application profile
- How to understand / interpret a technical datasheet
- Adhesive bonding process:
- Adhesive preparation – Surface preparation – How to apply and cure the adhesive
- Failure analysis – the most common mistakes!
- Open Discussion
